THE LEGENDS OF HISTORY: An Educational Multi- Media Historical Art exhibit exploring the history of War and Civilization in the Western World through an outline of history in word paintings and visual art. Medieval French literature is, for the purpose of this article, literature written in Oil languages (particularly Old French and early Middle French) during the period from the eleventh century to the end of the fifteenth century. Italian literature, the body of written works produced in the Italian language that had its beginnings in the 13th century. Until that time nearly all literary work composed in Europe during the Middle Ages was written in Latin. Romance: Romance, literary form, usually characterized by its treatment of chivalry, that came into being in France in the mid-12th century. It had antecedents in many prose works from classical antiquity (the so-called Greek romances), but as a distinctive genre it was developed in the context of the, Legends And Romances Of Spain.
