

Download Accounting Techniques In Korea 18th Century Archival Samples From A Non-profit Association In The S

accounting techniques in korea: 18th century archival samples from a non-profit association in the sinitic world
Abstract: Little is known about pre-1900 East Asian accounting techniques. A double-entry method of accounting may date from the 11th century in Korea, but extant commercial ledgers are no older than 1854. Seong Ho Jun and James B. Lewis (2006) ACCOUNTING TECHNIQUES IN KOREA: 18TH CENTURY ARCHIVAL SAMPLES FROM A NON-PROFIT ASSOCIATION IN THE SINITIC WORLD. Accounting Historians Journal: June 2006, Vol. 33, No. 1, pp. 53-87. accounting techniques in korea: 18th century archival samples from a non-profit association in the sinitic world created date: 20160811022954z Accounting Techniques in Korea: 18th-century Archival Samples from a Non-Profit Association in the Sinitic World" (2010). Accounting, the State and democracy: a long term perspective on the French experiment 1716-1967," paper presented at the 22nd ABFH Annual Conference,, Accounting Techniques In Korea 18th Century Archival Samples From A Non-profit Association In The S.

Other Files :