

Download Korean-english Dictionary 17000

Collins offers the highest quality dictionary data to meet your language needs. Our data is held in our proprietary XML format and is a rich lexical resource.

petition petition 2 verb [intransitive, transitive] 1 ASK FOR something/ASK somebody TO DO something to ask the government or an organization to do something by sending them a petition petition somebody to do something Villagers petitioned the local authority to provide better bus services. petition against/for Residents are petitioning against ...From Longman Dictionary of Contemporary English protest protest 1 / ?pr??test $ ?pro?-/ W3 noun 1 PROTEST [countable, uncountable] something that you do to show publicly that you think that something is wrong and unfair, for example taking part in big public meetings, refusing to work, or refusing to buy a company's products protest ...K-pop (abbreviation of Korean pop; Hangul: ???) is a genre of popular music originating in South Korea. While the modern form of K-pop can be traced back to the early 90s, the term itself has been popularized since the 2000s, replacing the term Gayo (??), which also refers to domestic pop music in South Korea., Korean-english Dictionary 17000.

Other Files :