Nathan Hale (June 6, 1755 – September 22, 1776) was an American soldier and spy for the Continental Army during the American Revolutionary War. He volunteered for an intelligence-gathering mission in New York City but was captured by the British and executed. Nathan Hale was a Patriot through and through, who gave his life trying to bring back information for General Washington in New York. Nathan Hale Chapter is one of more than 3,000 Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) chapters worldwide. As a non-profit, non-political women's volunteer service organization our members are dedicated to historic preservation, patriotism, and education.
