This is the “old standard” design and is still found in many industrial applications but has many disadvantages. On first appearance, this design looks like it could hold tubing more securely than a single “line contact” barb. By the time we graduate high school, we learn that they never taught us the most exciting things there. Sure, you might be able to name the European countries or point New York on the map, but does that give you a real understanding of how the world functions? One thing that surprised the astronauts who visited the Moon was the strong odour of the lunar dust which they were only able to smell when they got back inside the Lunar Module. Climate strikes: U.S. students skipping school as part of global action. Thousands of students across the U.S. were expected to stage school walkouts on Friday, joining peers around the world to demand action on climate change., What They Didn't Teach You In Design School.
